Description

An elegant early 20th-century French chest of drawers, crafted from fine rosewood and embellished with refined floral inlays. The piece, with its sinuous, flowing lines typical of the Louis XV style, features five drawers with engraved and gilded bronze handles with rocaille motifs. The corners and legs are embellished with finely crafted bronze appliqués, highlighting the harmony and sophistication of its forms. The upper surface is made of fine yellow marble with natural veins, slightly shaped, perfectly integrated with the underlying structure.
