

Three-armed Floor Lamp, éditions Maison Lunel, Paris, France, Circa 1950

4 800 EUR

Signature : Maison Lunel

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Metal

Diameter : 66 cm

Height : 170 cm

Description

Floor lamp in black lacquered metal and brass, composed of three luminous lacquered metal arms, held together in the middle by a brass ring and fixed to a circular black-lacquered cast-iron base set with a brass angle. At the end of each arm is a brass ring terminating in a socket and hinged by a ball joint, supporting on either side two conical shades diffusing the light. Recent lampshades identical to the originals. Two pieces available
Height with lampshades: 170 cm (70.5 inches - 5.9 feet)
Height without lampshades: 162 cm (63.8 inches)
Overall diameter: 66 cm (23 inches)
Story
LUNEL is a French lighting manufacturer associated with the modern creative movement for its creations close to those of the first French designers. The LUNEL publishing house has notably popularized the use of

Dealer

Galerie Canavèse

Decorative Arts of the eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth Centuries

Tel : 09 50 75 60 25

Mobile : 06 08 41 29 80

Fax : 01 42 60 50 26

21 rue des Saints Pères

Paris 75006

lacquered tubular metal or even brass in the creation of lighting fixtures. Suspensions, lamps, wall lights or floor lamps, many of the pieces published by LUNEL are made in a simple, sober and refined style, with an easily identifiable design, which makes it a very popular publisher among collectors.