Description

Maurice ALET Elegant art deco sideboard in marquetrie and thuya burl veneer, Front, in carefully matched thuya burl veneer, presents a geometric and stylized ornamentation in light wood marquetrie, the two central doors are decorated with a sumptuous symmetrical motif with volutes framing two discreetly integrated locks, the upper top, slightly overhanging and curved with marble, rests on a stepped base with a softened curve, giving the whole a fluid and powerful line at the same time. On the lower right part appears the mark "MA" (monogram of Maurice Alet) guarantee of authenticity. The interior, original, offers a vast storage space, with modular shelves. French work from the years 1935-1940. Excellent condition of conservation, original varnish carefully restored by a
