Description

This pair of curved chests of drawers is in the quintessential Louis XV style (1715/1774). Fabulous examples of Modena design, with curved fronts that extend across both the base cornice and the top. Fully slatted in walnut and trimmed to form burl paneling, typical of Emilian style, these motifs are repeated on the sides, drawer fronts, and top, underscoring their dedication and importance. The pair and their integrity crown these two objects, placing them in a world that transcends mere furnishings. Rare and beautiful. Dimensions (cm): W 128, D 62, H 86.
