Description

Pretty rectangular copper planter with a curved body, resting on four corners cut at right angles, wide upper edge circled in copper, a solid construction. Decoration, using soft and vegetal colors, is superb: front panel is a wooded mountainous landscape, decorated with a temple and a pagoda. The 3 other panels, white background, botanical, are inhabited by flowers, birds, insects superbly painted, in pink frames, contrasting with the turquoise color of the borders. In addition, condition is superb. Not a scratch, just a small lack on one foot, (photo). Chinese work, circa 1900.
