Description

Cavalry officer's saber model 1822 Manufactured by the Manufacture d'armes de Châtellerault in July 1879. On the blade, we can see a name engraved in an ornate cartouche, typical of private officer's sabers, often personally ordered. Hallmarks S and B = official controllers active at this date (namely Bernier & Sprenger). Guard in polished gilded brass with three branches enriched with foliage and palms. Curved blade, single-edged, hollow-sided back (blade "à la Montmorency" typical of 1822 models). Silver-plated filigree handle, in excellent condition. Metal scabbard with a bail. Total length: Approximately 110 cm. Overall in very good condition.
