Description

Bypass ring in white gold with diamonds
A sculptural and modern ring in 750 (18 carat) white gold. Its open silhouette is shaped according to the "Bypass" principle: two rings rotating in opposite directions subtly merge, leaving an elegant space in the center. The two upper parts of the ring are set with one hundred and ninety-four round diamonds of 2.075 ct, arranged in pavé. The authenticity of the ring is confirmed by the maker's hallmark and by the Lithuanian Assay Office.
