Description

Raoul Lachenal (1885-1956) - Glazed ceramic vase Glazed ceramic vase Signature below Son of Edmond Lachenal, Raoul Lachenal worked in his father's workshop until 1911, when he opened a new workshop in Boulogne-sur-Seine. Although some of Raoul Lachenal's Art Nouveau ceramics resemble pieces by his father, he also produced distinctive stoneware that can rival the works of master glazers like Ernest Chaplet and Albert Dammouse. At his best, Lachenal can rightly be compared to these titans of the renaissance of French pottery art.Visible à la Galerie Courcelles Antiquités, au 97 rue de Courcelles, dans le XVIIe arrondissement de Paris
