Description

Rare seventeenth-century oil painting on canvas depicting a holy bishop of the Franciscan order, identifiable by the brown habit and the golden crozier that emerges from the dark background. The saint is represented with his gaze turned towards the observer with a book in his left hand, a symbol of doctrine and spiritual wisdom. To the left of the face, we can distinguish a bishop's miter and a crown, attributes that allude to the ecclesiastical dignity and sanctity of the character. Finely carved golden frame with plant motifs and shells at the corners. Italian school, 17th century. For further information or if interested, do not hesitate to contact us on +393282150796.
