Description

The old paintings Still Life with Flowers feature an Art Nouveau Vase of Flowers and a Bouquet of fresh flowers with white and pink roses, accompanied by other spring flowers in shades of pink and purple, arranged in two ceramic vases, one turquoise and one ivory. Next to the vases is a small cup and saucer decorated with small floral motifs and a porcelain lid. In the background, a light-colored wall can be seen with soft, nuanced brushstrokes, allowing the flowers to take center stage. This is a beautiful oil painting on canvas from the early 1900s, Art Deco. This antique oil painting features a soft brushstroke and an attention to color typical of the French school of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The floral subject is treated with grace and sensitivity, conveying domestic serenity and bourgeois
