Description

Elegant antique complete table service including a tablecloth and twelve napkins in pure white damask linen, reserved for the embroidery of coats of arms or antique monograms. The decoration features a delicate floral motif intertwined with ribbons, typical of French damasks from the early 20th century (circa 1900-1930). The weave is fine, tight and luminous, revealing a beautiful quality of pure linen, offering a soft and silky drape ideal for artistic embroidery. The pieces are new, never used, carefully washed, ironed and half-given, ready to receive their personalized embroidery. ???? Personalization possible: The service can be embroidered with coats of arms or antique monograms. ???? Price of the embroidered service: EUR350 A supplement is to be expected
