Lucien Delrive Limoges Enamel Portrait Cut Etched Glass And Ormolu Lidded Box

995 EUR

Signature : Lucien Delrive

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Enamel

Description

Lucien Delrive (French, late 19th century), a large, signed enamel portrait of a lady, mounted on a cut and etched glass and ormolu casket.Measurements:Enamel: 11.5cm diameterBox: 11.5cm high, 20cm (max) wide.Note: Lucien Delrive (signed L Delrive) was an exceptional student of Alfred Mayer, who was responsible for reviving Limoges enameling techniques in the late 19th century. Delrive was the author of "Les Émaux De Limoges, a la portée de tous, par Lucien Delrive eléve d´Alfred Meyer" (Bourgeois Ainé, 1890).Condition: Very good, apart from a crack in one of the 4 etched side panels of the box (see images)NO HIDDEN COSTS: Shipping/Import: EU customers, PLEASE NOTE: Our price for this item is delivered to your door, including all shipping and

Dealer

Lefays

Fine, affordable, art and antiques with excellent customer service

Mobile : +44 7772174440

Hare Lane,

Chard TA20

import costs paid (duty/tariffs, customs clearance fees, and VAT). For other destinations, please inquire.