Description

(immediate availability) Louis XVI style games table or bouillotte table, with a diameter of 65 cm and a height of 73.5 cm. This unique piece is distinguished by its removable top with a delicate and subtle pattern, the marquetry depicts a bucolic landscape decorated with a castle, a fountain, characters in costume, a sedan chair, etc.; The two red leather-covered pulls and the two very practical drawers offer storage in a jiffy. The removable top is turned over and a checkerboard is revealed and the game begins. This unique piece combines aesthetics and functionality, a great asset for evenings with friends or family for moments of conviviality in elegance.
