Description

A carved lacquered wooden box...Atypical in shape...Because in principle they are round, square or rectangular...With gilded lacquered decorations...With small inclusions of insects and flowers in carved mother-of-pearl...The rest is left a little rough to show that we are in nature...And a plate certainly in silver for the signature...From the 1900s...JAPANESE origin...In good general condition...A passage was made to a cabinetmaker to be more beautiful...The lid has no hinge it fits into a groove in the lower part...It is light in proportion to its size because certain woods in Japan are of low density...!Weight ... 140 gr
