Description

Large painting circa 1920-1930, depicting a lush bouquet of wildflowers--daisies, mimosa, cornflowers, and wildflowers--arranged in a blue and white earthenware vase. On the table, a glazed green bowl captures the light and adds an intense chromatic contrast. The dark, uniform background highlights the liveliness of the hues and reinforces the depth of the composition. The painter's broad, dynamic touch reveals a sensitivity to pictorial material and natural light. Painting signed lower right Biron. Period frame.
