Description

"Religious" clocks in the Louis XIV style and from the Napoleon III period, circa 1860. Wooden case covered with a blackened wood veneer and finished with a French polish, providing contrast, luminosity, and protection. Rich, high-quality gilded bronze ornamentation, featuring a finial in the form of a flaming urn and a border of three friezes intricately carved with foliage.

The front is a large glass door with a lock and key, its frame carefully ornamented with acanthus scrolls and a Neptune head. The
