Description

Antique Louis XIV Neapolitan bedside table in walnut burl with rosewood inserts. The walnut burl surface plays on the grain and the contrasting chiaroscuro of the various inlays. The decoration is typical of 18th-century Neapolitan style, with the classic contrasting insert and bronze shield on the lock. The two corners and the top are highlighted by elegant wooden borders arranged end-to-end. The three-drawer front is accentuated by a beautiful movement that is repeated on the sides, with the wedge-shaped sides typical of Neapolitan cabinetmakers of the period. The two cabriole legs have the classic cabriole shape and are connected by a mixtilinear apron. General Condition: Restored by our master craftsmen using the traditional shellac and alcohol hand-applied method. Origin: Naples, 18th
