Description

Art Deco period reading lamp. The green lacquer work enhanced on brass enhances all its contrast. The scrollwork decorations sublimate the convex shape of the straight branch. The fluted base is enhanced on a threaded brass rod. The hexagonal wooden base is stained mahogany. It recalls the central glass shelf. It sublimate the round lampshade, new and typical of the period (fan motifs). Large screw-in bulb, revised electricity. The four materials and materials enhance the know-how, they go in the old as well as the modern. Delivery possible not included in the price.
