Description

Melissa Carmelite water bottles. They are made of opal crystal in the rare jade green color. They feature a forget-me-not decoration by Jean-Baptiste Desvignes. They are set in a gilt and patinated bronze mount. The decoration is called "Cathedral" which was launched around 1818-1820, by the Duchess of Berry. The Romantic period is distinguished by a very pronounced taste for the Gothic style. This period follows the Troubadour movement. The handles are twisted and raised. Total width: 21 cm Total height: 15 cm Height of the bottles: 13 cm Rare model presenting 3 bottles....
