

Diamond, Ruby And Diamond Solitaire Ring - 18 Carat Gold, Circa 1970

8 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Diamond, ruby and diamond solitaire ring - 18 carat gold, circa 1970 Superb ring featuring a central old-cut diamond of approximately 2.20 carats, mounted in solitaire, flanked by two natural rubies of approximately 0.20 carats each. The main stone, estimated quality VVS2 to VS1 and color G-H, offers exceptional brilliance and a particularly lively old cut. The setting, in 18 carat yellow gold (750 ?), adopts an elegant spiral design where two arms set with seven diamonds each (approximately 0.18 carats per row) highlight the central diamond and frame the rubies. Work from the 1970s, this modern setting highlights the old stone, creating a jewel that is both refined and balanced. A small fixed bridge is present under the band, easily removable for size adjustment. A solid ring, beautifully crafted, with

Dealer

MGA gallery

La passion de l'argenterie

Tel : +32 477 63 01 17

Rue Watteeu 9 et 25

Bruxelles 1000

a luminous and feminine character. Features: o Period: circa 1970 o Setting: 18-carat (750?) yellow gold, weight 6.3 g o Main stone: old-cut diamond, approx. 2.20 ct - estimated clarity VVS2/VS1, color G-H o Accent stones: 2 natural rubies, approx. 0.20 ct each o Pave setting: 2 lines of 7 diamonds, or 0.18 ct per line o Ring size: 52 (easy to size) o Condition: excellent condition, sturdy setting, impeccable settings