Description

This 18th-century French tempera on paper depicts a genre scene set in a classical garden, with two elegantly dressed figures in the foreground, accompanied by a small dog. In the background, a park lined with cypresses and pines, typical of Italianate or French gardens of the period, and a stone monument with a sculptural bust can be seen.

The tempera on paper painting is distinguished by its soft, luminous colors and the attention to detail in the draperies and the landscape.

The frame is made of contemporary gilded wood.

The framed dimensions are:

19.5 x 21.5 cm
