Description

Art Deco ring in white gold, onyx and diamond - 18 carat gold Elegant Art Deco style ring, in 18 carat white gold (750 ?), adorned with a rectangular onyx plate in which is set an old-cut diamond of approximately 0.30 carats. The setting, of very fine craftsmanship, is hallmarked with an eagle's head and bears the initials of the goldsmith LD, unidentified to date. The marked contrast between the brilliance of the diamond and the black depth of the onyx creates a graphic effect typical of the 1920s-1930s. The onyx is in exceptional condition, without any dents or cracks, which is rare for this type of antique jewelry, often fragile. The closed setting perfectly highlights the central stone while emphasizing the rigor of the geometric design specific to the Art Deco period. A sober, refined and perfectly
