Description

Elegant small sideboard in solid walnut, finely hand-carved. The sideboard features bracket feet, a solid wood top, and is also decorated with geometric diamond-shaped carvings on the front and sides, adding further refinement. The sideboard opens via a door with a turned, lost-wax cast bronze knob. The pillars also open. This is a tasteful and elegant piece of furniture, capable of furnishing any space with class. Tuscan manufacture, from the Louis XIV period, around the beginning of the 18th century.
