Description

Made of wood and lacquered metal covered in black leather, decorated with two hooks. Good general condition. From the 1950s. Dimensions: H: 115.5 cm W: 40.5 cm D: 40.5 cm Jacques Adnet is a famous French decorator of the 20th century belonging to the Art Deco and Modernism movements. Architect, designer of interiors and furniture. Member of the "Compagnie des Arts Français". He favors simple shapes and clean volumes. His refined furniture is made of choice materials. From the 1930s, his designer furniture used new materials such as chromed metal and glass. Towards the end of the 1930s, he returned to a more traditionalist production inspired by styles of the past. After the 1945 war, he produced a new type of furniture with simple lines, rather masculine, often in metal
