Description

Milas rug hand knotted in wool on wool from western Turkey around 1970 - 1980. This rug is knotted with the double knot technique called Turkish knot or ghiordes knot. Composition of abstract and geometric figures and large stylized flowers, trees of life and botehs specific to these rugs. The colors placed on an ivory, beige, brick, red and lichen background match particularly well. These symbols of nomadic origin knotted on this piece are the expression of beliefs and superstitions that are still relevant today. This rug is in impeccable condition. Rug cleaned professionally and ecologically.
