Description

This evocative oil on canvas by Pascual Bueno Ferrer (b.1930, Barcelona) captures the Port of Barcelona enveloped in a gentle maritime haze. The composition unfolds with rows of small fishing boats moored at the quay, their reflections softly rippling across silvery water. Figures along the dock prepare and mend nets, bringing a human rhythm to the tranquil industrial setting. Bueno's palette--composed of cool grays, slate blues, and muted ochres--creates a misty harmony that suggests early morning light diffused through sea air. His impasto brushwork and layered textures convey both atmosphere and structure, merging precision with painterly spontaneity. The work exemplifies the lyrical realism of Catalan Post-Impressionism, blending observation with
