Description

Curved corner cupboard from the 18th century painted with floral motifs inspired by 18th century still lifes. Corner cupboard with rounded support height on the front. It dates from the second half of the 18th century, transitional period. It opens on the front with two doors releasing two shelves. The backs are in oak and the rest is in fruit wood. Entirely pegged and with dovetailed joints, it rests on an original plinth. It is topped with a beautiful gray Sainte Anne marble with original veining. The top intended to receive the marble is mounted with tenons and mortises. Lock and keys work but were changed in the 19th century. It was painted in the 19th century in Provençal-style lacquer in burgundy red with decorative elements in the door panels: Medici glass vases receiving bouquets of flowers,
