Description

period art deco mantelpiece set, consisting of a central clock and two matching cassioles. Made of white-veined pink onyx and patinated bronze mount, typical of the refinement of the 1930s, the clock, with its geometric and balanced architecture, rests on a curved base and is framed by four columns supporting an entablature decorated with outstretched eagles, a symbol of strength and prestige. In good general condition. Do not hesitate to contact us to buy with full knowledge. You can reach us on this site by contacting the buyer or by phone at 0699488076 or 0650288114.
