Description

It is rare to find a complete century-old coffee service in such good condition. Intended for export to Europe, each of the 30 pieces is signed with Satsuma crest and potter's mark in red. Decorations appear to be from the Koshida family, which stopped production circa 1927. These botanical decorations are superb, enhanced of gold on ivory background, framed with cobalt blue borders also enhanced with gold. Each cup or saucer has a different plant decoration on one side, and same gold bamboos on the other side. On bottom of each cup, two butterflies seem to flutter. Refinement is extreme.Beautiful condition, no flaws, sometimes a little wear on a saucer on centre. Coffee pot measures (16 cm) high. cups measure (5.4 cm) high and (5.4 cm) in diameter. saucers measure (12cm) in diameter. A
