Description

Very elegant Regency - Louis XV style center table in solid oak with a waxed patina. Our table rests on four legs, each with a graceful curve called "crow's foot" and hemmed along its entire length with a delicate molding ending in a sculpted hoof. The upper part of each leg is decorated with a sculpted falling motif. Very elegant Regency - Louis XV style center table in solid oak with a waxed patina. The belt is decorated on its four sides, in the middle of each, with a beautiful rocaille decoration and elegant acanthus scrolls framed by cartouches containing grid and quatrefoil work, typical motifs of the first half of the 18th century and very present in the Paris region. The whole is topped with a top decorated with a molding around its entire perimeter. This top must have been made in the
