Description

Superb Art Deco style console table, made in the 20th century, elegantly combining the purity of white marble with the sculptural strength of wrought iron. The solid top, remarkably thick at 12 cm, rests on two wrought iron legs creating graceful scrolls. Their powerful yet balanced lines evoke the architectural spirit and refined modernity of the Art Deco movement. The harmonious proportions - length 110 cm, height 86 cm, depth 32 cm - give this piece a presence that is both understated and majestic. Ideal for enhancing an entrance, living room or hallway, this console table embodies the timeless elegance of 20th century design, where rigorous forms meet noble materials.
