signed, dated, and numbered in pencil 84/100, with the publisher's dry stamp in the lower right corner. Although distinct, the two cycles share the geometric structure and compositional rigor typical of Stella's work: a reflection on the relationship between color, structure, and seriality. In Jasper's Dilemma, the artist alternates modules of concentric polychrome and monochrome squares. Les Indes Galantes, on the other hand, introduces a more dynamic and decorative tone. Dimensions: 40.5 X 56 / 22 X 44
