Description

A Large Pair of Regence Period Walnut Armchairs, circa 1720

Description:

A large and impressive pair of walnut armchairs, each featuring a tall, flat backrest and a generous seat. These armchairs are distinguished by their gracefully curved armrests and four elegantly cabriole legs. The quality of the woodwork and their overall design reflect the quintessential French craftsmanship of the Regency period.

This refined pair, likely of Parisian origin and dating to circa 1720, embodies the sophistication and artistry of French furniture from that era.
