Description

Important inkwell from the Napoleon III period in Louis XV style. It consists of a Japanese lacquer support decorated with hens and chicks in a landscape. Landscape and hens are treated in red lacquer on a black background. The receptacles are in lacquer decorated with very finely treated landscapes. The whole is decorated with beautiful Louis XV style bronzes, finely worked and chiseled. A candlestick decorated with flowers is located at the back of the inkwell but was moved at one time, a small hole is found on the bronze trim, look carefully at the photos. The bronzes are of good quality with a beautiful gilding which could be revived with cleaning. A very beautiful large inkwell, very decorative. Dimensions: 35 cm long by 26 cm wide and 17 cm high.
