250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 70

Height : 100

Description

Italy, mid-20th century
Size: 100 × 70 cm
Elegant liturgical chasuble made of deep red damask fabric, decorated with gold galloons featuring small red crosses. The damask pattern displays stylized floral motifs, typical of Italian ecclesiastical production in the 20th century. The cut and decoration follow the Roman tradition, with an ornamental cross on the back and a rectangular border on the front. Comes with a matching stole, also edged with gold galloons. Very good condition, with slight signs of use consistent with its age. Ideal for collectors of sacred objects, liturgical antiques, or for traditional ceremonial use.
