Description

The Galerie Le Jardin Des Moines, religious antiques and sacred art, offers you a Reliquary Shrine in its Wooden Box - 18th century. Amazing shrine, tomb-style, of which there are only a few examples in this form. Presented in its protective case delicately painted on three sides where delicate flowers appear, it rests on four flowered feet. An opening allows access to the main display case of the reliquary, which is covered in green velvet which has retained its freshness. The shrine has six niches with a golden paperolles assembly on a red background. The two largest are on the main face and two on each side face. Three small windows have been broken and one of the niches is damaged. The main niche has six clearly visible ex-ossibus relics. One of them has become detached. Thus present are Saint
