

19th Century Specimen Sicilian Jasper And Hard Stone Marble Game Board

1 850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marble

Width : 52.7cm

Depth : 52.7cm

Description

A fine specimen of a 19th-century Sicilian jasper and hardstone gaming table top from Chios o Portasanta marble, firmly attributed to Francesco Sibilio. This superb hardstone top is attributed to Francesco Sibilio, a prominent Roman marble mason and merchant, active during the pontificate of Pius VII. His collection of rare semi-precious stones, hardstones, granites, and marbles was renowned throughout ancient Rome. He was considered a master in this field. The Sicilian stones composing this magnificent piece are among the finest you will ever see.

Dealer

Important Pieces

Bronzes dorés, marbre, pierres rares

Tel : 00447767370247

Walton On Thames KT12