Description

Set of three Maison Regain chairs in elm and leather, 1960/1970. Iconic model from Maison Regain with elm frame and leather seats/backs. Brutalist design, these very comfortable and sturdy chairs dating from the 60s/70s. The leather has its patina, with a beige color that has faded over time, has some stains and scratches that give a beautiful overall patina. Combining the timeless elegance of elm and the luxury of leather, Maison Regain chairs embody exceptional craftsmanship and French know-how. Each piece, carefully designed, combines the robustness of solid wood with the softness of leather selected for its feel and durability.
