

19th Century Spanish Left Hand Dagger From Toledo

900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Metal

Length : 43 cm

Description

19th Century Spanish Toledo Left Handed / Parrying Dagger. This iconic sail daggers came around and are some of the most desirable historical daggers. The stunning later example is Spanish Toledo made dagger. It is beautifully etched with floral motifs, having the same design / pattern on all the fittings and the blade. The hilt is comprised of a sail guard with straight quillions and a wooden handle that could be a replacement from the original. The dagger has a double edge design in great condition, heavily etched with some gilding. Specifications: Length Sheathed: 43 cm Length: 40 Cm Blade: 29 cm

Dealer

Antiques Armoury
Antiques and Collectables
Tel : 0035699849540

Triq Enrico Naudi
L'iklin IKL Malta 1641