Description

The Provence ceiling light was created in 1927 by R. Lalique in white glass. It measures 34 cm in diameter. It is signed in molded stick letters and in script letters. The ceiling light is presented here with a glass stem and a glass cap cover. It measures 75 cm long. Without this stem, it can be suspended directly on the ceiling by its internal metal crosspiece system and would measure 35 cm high.
