Description

Émile GALLÉ - Pair of blue glazed earthenware vases with the letters "EB" France, late 19th century Polychrome glazed earthenware with decoration in slight relief Signed intaglio "EG" under the base, with "Roscoff" labels Pair of small glazed earthenware vases, slightly truncated in shape with a narrow neck, decorated with a hand-painted floral decoration on a turquoise blue background. Each piece bears on the front the gilded letters "EB" framed by flowering branches in slight relief. The base bears the intaglio mark "EG" corresponding to Émile Gallé, accompanied by a model number ("8014", "8498") and old labels of provenance "Roscoff". This type of decorative earthenware is typical of Gallé's early productions in the 1880s-1890s, notably his collaborations with local earthenware factories.
