

Nq Foliot, Master In 1729 - Louis XV Armchair, Circa 1760 - Natural Wood And Silk

2 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Visible in Paris. Free delivery in France and neighboring countries. Contact me for other countries. Armchair "à la Reine" Unpainted beech Pegged joints Stamped on the rear crossbar, trace of label Dimensions: H. 83; Seat height 40; W. 68; D. 54 (cm) Paris, circa 1750-60 Large armchair with simple molding. It rests on four curved legs ending in scrolls or "slippers." Scalloped belt, whip-shaped armrests, and curved upper backrest. Nicolas-Quinibert Foliot (1706-1776) One of the greatest cabinetmakers of the Louis XV era. A supplier to the Crown, he surrounded himself with the best sculptors, such as Babel, Dupré, and his nephew. A royal model During the reign of Louis XV, Foliot made several important deliveries of simple but dignified and elegant furniture. Rare examples are

Dealer

Schoppmann Art and Antiques

Mobilier, objets d'art et décoration

Mobile : 0666629452

838 chemin de la Lauve

Saint-Raphaël 83700

now preserved at the Mobilier National in Versailles and the J. Paul Getty Museum. The American institution has a pair of armchairs very similar to ours. Comparable work:- a pair of armchairs delivered to Versailles around 1762 (last photo), J. Paul Getty, inv.70.DA.70. Condition report: no play in the joints, newly upholstered with Rubelli silk.