Description

Group representing a hairdresser and his client, made of glazed and hand-painted stoneware. The former is probably creating a traditional male hairstyle, chonmage, with its characteristic bun at the back of the head. The figurines are made with exceptional realism and attention to detail. Next to the figures, we see a hairdresser's cabinet containing tools. The group has many similarities with the anthropomorphic figures kept at the Ariana Museum in Geneva, made by artists such as Goraku or Kosen. Japan, Meiji era, late 19th century. Signature to be identified. Height 25 cm, width 13 cm, depth 13.5 cm. Good condition, some chips, especially on the base. Free shipping in the European Union! I send parcels by insured mail (DPD or DHL). All items are packaged very carefully. Payment by international bank transfer.
