Description

Large dining room table in solid carved walnut from the Napoleon period dating from the 19th century. The apron is beautifully crafted as is the base decorated with shells, acanthus leaves and garlands of flowers. The top opens to accommodate up to 7 extensions. This table is sold with only 3 original extensions. The sliding system is mounted with metal which gives it a perfect opening and closing of the top. Each leg has a castor which allows the table to be moved without damaging the floors and thus allows easy installation and cleaning. Very high quality French work. Dimensions Total height 75cm Height under apron 64cm Width 1m40 Closed length 2m Opened Length 5m50
