Description

Circa 1780, Venice, Murano, Italy A rare 20.5 cm tall clear Murano blown glass bottle with a swirling, twisted shape, adorned with rosettes and cobalt blue glass decorations. This bottle had a wide body that extended into a long, elegant neck. An example of the finest 18th century Venetian art glass. In fair condition considering its age and fragility: a 6 cm stable line, starting from the pontil mark, extends onto a side panel of the body. Not very visible, see the last photo. Otherwise in good condition and larger than the known 16 cm examples. Dimensions: 20.5 x 12 cm / 183 g
