Description

A refined 19th-century French giltwood mirror, beautifully adorned with intricate floral and foliate carvings. The elegant arched frame is crowned with an ornate crest featuring scrolls, acanthus leaves, and delicate flowers, typical of the Louis XV-inspired decorative style that flourished throughout the 19th century. Its generous proportions and rich gilded finish bring a sense of grandeur and timeless charm to any interior. The mirror retains its original mercury glass, characterized by subtle age-related spotting that enhances its authentic antique appeal. The frame is carved in wood and finished with gold leaf, displaying a fine patina that attests to its age and quality craftsmanship. Perfect for placement above a console, mantel, or in an entryway, this mirror captures the romantic elegance of classical
