Description

Oil on canvas depicting the portrait of a young girl by the Spanish painter Pérou Creixams. This artist, belonging to the School of Paris, was born in Barcelona in 1894 and died in the same city in 1965. He painted genre scenes, landscapes, and portraits. He exhibited in Paris from 1920 onwards, at the Salon d'Automne, the Salon des Indépendants, and the Salon des Tuileries. The owner of the Petit Palais in Geneva exhibited his works alongside those of the greatest names in 20th-century painting: Derain, Vlaminck, Foujita, Picasso, etc. As you can see in the photos, there are a few small chips, nothing serious. The painting is signed in the upper left corner.
