Description

A Very Decorative French Louis XIV Style Carved Painted Faux Marble Top Hall Console Table. A 20th century French Louis XIV style carved painted hall console table, featuring a faux marble top. This stunning piece is raised on fine square foliate feet, connected by a striking X-shaped stretcher. The stretcher showcases a square and foliate scrolled design, culminating in a beautifully carved central foliate finial. The impressive square tapered legs are adorned with scrolled foliate motifs set against a striking lattice pattern, creating a dynamic visual effect. The powerful apron of the console is centered by an outstanding richly foliate carving, finished in a painted burnished style. Intricate scrolled and foliate designs extend outward, leading to elegant block rosettes. Each side of the console is
