Description

A charming small antique Louis XV style fireplace, known as a three-shell fireplace, crafted from Carrara white marble and dating from the late 19th century. It is currently being cleaned and restored in our workshops. It will be sold with a modern-made fireback, either plain or with cabochons, as well as a three-panel curtain with a brass frame and a modern white aluminum surround in the style of antique ceramics. The fireplace will soon be available in our showroom.

P.S.: We have a second identical one.
