

Earrings, Early 20th Century.

450 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 6 cm

Description

This pair of sterling silver earrings consists of three articulated elements. The first, shaped like a flower, is centered with a half-pearl. Next is an openwork link supporting a final, crown-shaped element. The entire piece is set with white stones that sparkle in the light. They slip easily onto the front of the ear using a swan-neck clasp. The hallmark is a boar's head. Height: 6 cm
